KEY COMMENTS

- Current trading figures as of March 31, 2020
 (6M20A) show revenues growing +2% compared to previous year (6M19A) as a result of the following trends:
 - a strong increase in revenues of the SaaS BU of +20%, mainly driven by CSP (+35%);
 - An increase in revenues of the Software & Solutions BU of +32%;
 - a meaningful decrease of the Enterprise
 Equipment BU (-12%) due to some delay in sales linked to Covid-19 pandemic and to the discontinuity of consumer business.
- Enterprise Equipment performance, although expected because of on-gong activities re-mix, also discontinued by the delay of a couple of projects in the fashion industry as final exit.
- Increase in SaaS even higher whereas not impacted by (i) some project in the "hybrid cloud" service line to be delayed until next August and (iii) a more gradual transition of certainc customers from the Software & Solution products to SaaS.
